

The people hold up their palms while this prayer is said:

Let us pray:

God our Saviour,
whose Son Jesus Christ
entered Jerusalem as Messiah
to suffer and to die,
let these palms be for us
signs of his victory;
and grant that we who bear them
in his name may ever hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life;
who lives and reigns with you
and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

All glory, laud and honour to thee,
Redeemer, King:
to whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring.

Thou art the king of Israel,
thou David's royal Son,
who in the Lord's name cometh,
the king and blessed one.
All glory, laud ...

The company of angels
are praising thee on high,
and mortal men and all things
created make reply.
All glory, laud ...

There is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains he had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

There was no other good enough

The people of the Hebrews
with palms before thee went;
our praise and prayer and anthems
before thee we present.
All glory, laud ...

To thee before thy Passion
they sang their hymns of praise.
To thee now high exalted
our melody we raise.
All glory, laud ...

Thou didst accept their praises,
accept the prayers we bring,
who in all good delightest
thou good and gracious King.
All glory, laud ...

To pay the price of sin.
He only could unlock the gate
Of heav'n and let us in.

Oh, dearly, dearly has he loved!
And we must love him too,
And trust in his redeeming blood,
And try his works to do.
